

You expect the best for your practice...

from equipment to people.

That's why staffing your office with Registered and Certified Dental Assistants ensures the level of professionalism and service your patients deserve. They are committed to their profession, making them your essential assistant.

CDAA Corporate Member dental assistants:

- Are licensed or certified
- Are formally educated
- Adhere to a Code of Ethics
- Maintain competence
- Have access to malpractice insurance
- Are supported by our Employment Guide

For more information, contact the Canadian Dental Assistants'
Association at 1.800.345.5137
or online at www.cdaa.ca.

Dental Assistants Week - March 1-7, 2009
Celebrating the essential assistant!

